* Participants will be asked to complete 1-page pre/post evaluation forms, and a 3-6 month follow-up survey, to assist the AMA in evaluating this new curriculum.

Presenting Faculty
1. David Carr, MD, Washington University
2. Thomas Meuser, PhD, Washington University
3. Marla Berg-Weger, PhD, Saint Louis University
4. Pat Niewoehner, OTR/L, CDRS, St. Louis VA Medical Center

Objectives
1. Define Medical Fitness to Drive (MFD) and discuss health conditions that may impair MFD in older adults.
3. Discuss referral options, counseling strategies, and alternative transportation options for retiring drivers.
4. Review state reporting procedures in MO and IL.

Workshop & Registration Information
- The Older Drivers Project (ODP) of the American Medical Association (AMA) is dedicated to disseminating evidence-based information on driving-related assessment and counseling strategies to both physicians and other health professionals. The ODP is funded by grants from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Drs. Carr and Meuser are consultants to the ODP for curriculum dissemination and evaluation. Participants in this program will be asked to complete pre/post evaluation forms.
- The fee for this workshop is $20.00. Pre-registration is required. Register on-line at http://alzheimer.wustl.edu OR Mail in your $20 check made payable to the Washington University ADRC. Credit card payments accepted on-line only.
- Registrants will receive a 3-ring binder containing the AMA’s Physicians Guide to Assessing & Counseling the Older Driver, copies of state reporting forms for Missouri and Illinois, and a listing of alternate transportation options in the greater St. Louis area.
- The AMA is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The AMA designates this educational activity for a maximum of 3.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. All credit-related questions should be directed to the AMA (cpd@ama-assn.org) - not to the Washington University CME Office.
- Questions about the conference? Call Dr. Tom Meuser, ADRC Education Director, 314-286-2882 or meusert@abraxas.wustl.edu.
