

Announcing the Second Annual...

Norman R. Seay Lecture

"A Designed Pathway for Alzheimer's Intervention in Diverse Cultures"

12:15 - 1:15 PM

Tuesday, October 16th, 2007

Connor Auditorium

Farrell Learning & Teaching Center

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

RSVP to 314-286-2882

Presented by

Alzheimer's Disease Research Center
Department of Neurology
Washington University School of Medicine
John C. Morris, M.D., Director & Principal Investigator

Norman R. Seay

*Civil Rights Leader
Dedicated Volunteer, Advocate
& Supporter of Alzheimer's Research*

About the Lecturer

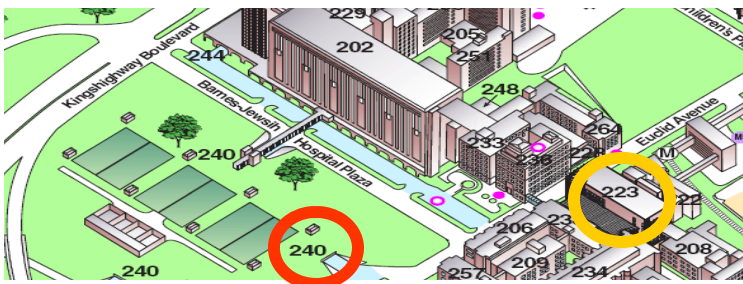

Peggye Dilworth-Anderson, Ph.D., is Professor of Health Policy and Administration/School of Public Health and Associate Director of Aging & Diversity/Institute on Aging at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Her areas of expertise include minority aging and health, family caregiving, health disparities, and long-term care. Her current research focuses on health disparities pertaining to Alzheimer's disease and related dementias.

Peggye Dilworth-Anderson

Dr. Dilworth-Anderson was recently appointed to the National Institute on Aging Advisory Council, serves on the editorial boards of three professional journals that address aging issues, and also serves on the Board of Directors of the National Alzheimer's Association.

A Fellow of the Gerontological Society and the National Council of Family Relations, Dr. Dilworth-Anderson's current professional affiliations include the Gerontological Society of America, National Council on Family Relations, American Sociological Association, and the American Public Health Association. She is also a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

The Farrell Learning and Teaching Center, #233, is circled here in yellow. An underground parking garage, #240, is circled in red.

From Kingshighway, turn east on Barnes-Jewish Hospital Plaza, make a right onto Euclid, and another right to enter the parking garage. The Farrell Center is at 520 S. Euclid.