

Announcing the Third Annual...

Norman R. Seay Lecture

“Race, Ethnicity, and Cultural Influences on Mental Health:
A Life-Course Framework”

12:00 - 1:00 PM

Tuesday, October 7th, 2008

Connor Auditorium

Farrell Learning & Teaching Center

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

RSVP to 314-286-2882

Presented by

Alzheimer's Disease Research Center
Department of Neurology
Washington University School of Medicine
John C. Morris, M.D., Director & Principal Investigator

Norman R. Seay

*Civil Rights Leader
Dedicated Volunteer, Advocate
& Supporter of Alzheimer's Research*

James S. Jackson

About the Lecturer

James S. Jackson, Ph.D, is the Daniel Katz Distinguished University Professor of Psychology, Professor of Health Behavior and Health Education, School of Public Health, and Director of the Institute for Social Research, all at the University of Michigan. He is an elected member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academies of Sciences.

Dr. Jackson's research focuses on issues of racial and ethnic influences on life course development, attitude change, social support, and coping and health among blacks in the Diaspora. He is currently directing the most extensive social, political behavior, and mental and physical health surveys on the African American and Black Caribbean populations ever conducted, including “The Family Survey across Generations and Nations.” He serves on the Boards for the National Research Council and the National Academies of Science and is a founding member of the new “Aging Society Research Network” of the MacArthur Foundation.

The Farrell Learning and Teaching Center, #223, is circled here in yellow. A parking garage, #240, is circled in red. From Kingshighway, turn east on Barnes-Jewish Hospital Plaza and make a right to enter the parking garage. The Farrell Center is at 520 S. Euclid.