

Charles F. and Joanne Knight
Alzheimer Disease Research Center
17th Annual Norman R. Seay Lecture
Tuesday, October 11th, 2022
4:00 pm – 5:00 pm Central Time
*Reception to follow

Eric P. Newman Education Center, 2nd Floor, Seminar Room B MAP
320 S. Euclid Ave., Saint Louis, MO 63110
Virtual Attendance is also available

Registration

Seay Lecture Information: <https://knightadrc.wustl.edu/center-events/seay-lecture/>

“Let Me Tell My Family First-” The Importance of Family in the Recruitment of African Americans into Alzheimer’s Disease and other Aging
Research Studies

17th Annual Seay Lecturer
Raegan Durant, MD, MPH
Professor/Associate Dean, Diversity, and Inclusion
University of Alabama-Birmingham

*The 17th Seay Lecture is offered in partnership with the Knight ADRC, Dr. John C. Morris, Director,
The African American Advisory Board of the Knight ADRC, and The Links, Incorporated, Saint Louis Chapter (MO)*

Please direct questions to Myrtis Spencer at mespencer@wustl.edu or 314-286-0930

To learn more about the Norman R. Seay Lecture series, or to view the Seay Lecture Video Archive, please visit <https://knightadrc.wustl.edu/center-events/seay-lecture/>