About Dr. Robinson

Dr. Robinson's research focuses on Alzheimer disease, including the role of proteins and lipid-related proteins, peripheral organs, and health disparities in Alzheimer's disease. Her work also emphasizes culturally sensitive approaches to inclusive research participation.

About the Seay Lecture

This lecture commemorates civil rights leader Norman R. Seay, inaugural chair and emeritus chair of the Knight ADRC African American Advisory Board, and honors his enduring legacy of leadership, advocacy, and community engagement.
